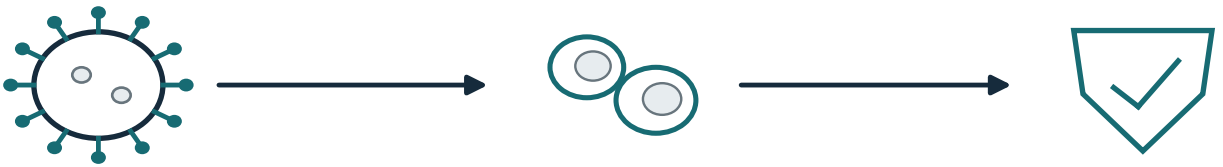
Different vaccination goals

A Infection prevention

Before relevant exposure



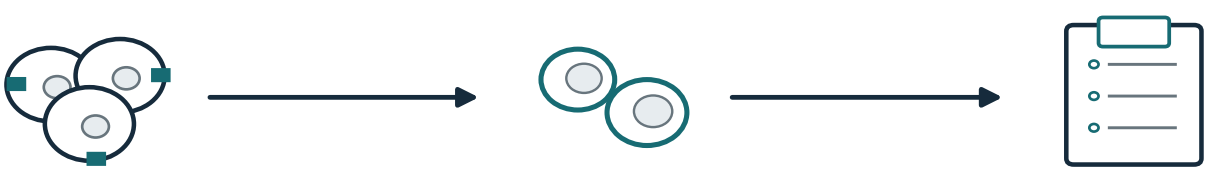
Infectious agent antigens

Immune preparation

Goal: fewer infections and associated disease

B Therapeutic cancer vaccination

After diagnosis, including investigation after surgery



Selected tumour antigens

Antigen-directed immune response

Goal: tumour control or lower recurrence

Conceptual purposes; clinical effects require intervention-specific evidence.